Post 5/3/64

United Press International

Makes Charge

Abraham Bolden, above, Secret Service man who has been indicted on charges of trying to sell a Government report to a man charged in Chicago with a counterfeiting plot, yesterday accused fellow Secret Service men of heavy drinking. The commission investigating the Kennedy assassination announced afterward that it has asked the FBI to look into the allegations.